FRENCH TEACHING MINOR

Name:	ID:
Minor Advisor Approval:	Date:
Department Chair Approval:	Date:
Intended Graduation Month:
The minor, together with a licensing major, is part of a program leading to a V to the major.	Wisconsin initial educator license to teach French at the level corresponding
It requires 31 credits beyond FREN 101 L and 102 L, to include:	Transfer credit applied (including AP/CLEP/etc):
Eight credits of intermediate French (or transfer courses (maximum of 8 credits accepted) or 8 retroactive credits):	Course/Institution:
FREN 201 GL Third Semester French
FREN 202 GL Fourth Semester French
Eight credits in language from the following: FREN 312 Third Year Conversation & Composition FREN 313 G Third Year Conversation & Composition FREN 314 G Language in the Media FREN 316 G Language & the Francophone World FREN 332 G Contemporary Francophone Culture FREN 333 G Film & Society FREN 380/480* Special Topics FOREIGN LANGUAGE 131 FREN 412 Advanced Conversation & Composition FREN 413 Advanced Conversation & Composition FREN 414 Advanced Language in the Media FREN 416 G Advanced Language & the Francophone World FREN 479 Independent Study
Four credits in literature or culture from the following: FREN 380/480* Special Topics FREN 428 CG Introduction to French Literature - Middle Ages to Revolution FREN 429 CG Introduction to French Literature - 19th & 20th Centuries FREN 437A CGQ Literary Movements of Modern France FREN 438 CG Francophone Literature FREN 479 Independent Study FREN 431 GH French Civilization
Four credits of French from courses listed above and not already taken.

Seven credits of phonetics and methods

☐ FREN 430	Phonetics
FREN/ED 459F	Methods of Teaching Foreign Language in Elementary/ Middle/Secondary Schools (4 cr)

Completion of the professional education requirements and licensing requirements for teacher education (See the EDUCATION listing). A French Teaching Minor must be accepted into Emergent Professional Transition before being admitted to French 459F.

*Specific course content determines to which area-language, literature, or culture -the credits can be applied