Course/Institution:

Specific course content determines to which area, language, literature, or culture, the credits can be applied*

Policies:

Emphasis is on the use of French in the classroom beginning with first-year classes. Advanced classes are conducted in French. Upper-level courses may be repeated for credit, provided content is different. Students with three or more years of the same high school language cannot take 101 of that same language at Edgewood College.

Transfer students who intend to continue in language should consult the Foreign Language Department for assistance in choosing the appropriate level course.

B or above in at least one of the courses listed.

If the department rotation of required 300 and 400 level courses does not permit students in the major or minor to take them at the College, they may take them at UW-Madison through the Collaborative Program.

At least four credits in French at Edgewood College or at UW-Madison through the Collaborative Program. Retroactive credit and Student Teaching will not be counted toward this minimum.

The year that prior courses were taken must be considered for determining courses' acceptability for satisfying minor requirement. Those seeking add-on teaching certification in foreign language must consult with the Foreign Language Department.

Proficiency tests exempting a student from a first and/or second year of foreign language are available upon request and with prior departmental approval.
