Certification in General Music

Required Courses:

MUS 489A/
ED 489A

Student Teaching: General Music

course has prerequisites*

Policies:

Students must complete the core music course requirements, including the senior recital. Music Education students are not expected to take private lessons or perform in a major performing ensemble during the student-teaching semester.

Music Education majors are required to pass the PRAXIS I exam and report scores to the Department Chair as a prerequisite for 200-level Music Education courses.

Lesson material is designed to give the student a foundation in technical development and music literature according to course level. Students are to perform in MUS 000 Performance Class and in a juried performance at the end of each semester. To progress from the 200 level to the 300 level, a student must receive a grade of "C" or higher in MUS 141 (if a music major or minor), be approved by the appropriate applied instructor, and receive official recommendation from the music faculty following the most recent juried performance. Students must be registered at the 300 or 400 level in order to present a recital and must register for MUS 381 and MUS 481.
